THE AZOLA
COMPANIES

Are proud to support Endangered Maryland in partnership with Preservation Maryland and Maryland Life magazine.

The Brown Stone Project coordinates the philanthropic efforts of Eddie and Sylvia Brown and the families of their daughters, Tonya and Jennifer. With a focus on The Arts; K-12 Education; HIV/Aids / Cancer Research; and Historic Preservation, the Brown Stone Project has enhanced many lives in Baltimore. Eddie Brown was recognized by Maryland Life magazine as the 2006 Marylander of Distinction.

Bromo Seltzer Tower

The Azola Companies have been in the business of historic building development for almost 40 years now. Dozens of important structures around Maryland including the Village of Rockland, Ruscombe Mansion, the Maryland Building at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and the Old Towson Jail have been saved by their comprehensive work.

Government House

In a collaborative effort, the Browns and Azolas have restored five buildings in Baltimore, including the rehab of the Bromo Seltzer Tower for use as artists' studios. This year, plans are underway for the rebirth of the former Inn at Government House.

Preservation Maryland is the state's oldest historic preservation organization. Founded in 1931 as the Society for the Preservation of Maryland Antiquities, Preservation Maryland is dedicated to preserving Maryland's historic buildings, neighborhoods, landscapes, and archaeological sites through outreach, funding and advocacy.
